

Love, Language, Literacy

A short workshop with Helen Lubin, Waldorf speech artist-educator

Saturday, November 8, 2025

9:00 – 11:15

at Wasatch Waldorf Charter School

Language infuses how we live and work together, as well as how we check in with ourselves. When does this begin? What does it encompass? What does it lead to?

Join us for an exploration of how this plays out throughout our lives, including in early childhood and during the school years, and how this develops, honors and nourishes our humanness.

This workshop is a gift from the school to the community – there is no fee to attend. Bring a friend!

Helen works with 'Speech Arts' in Waldorf schools, adult education, and therapeutic settings. Founded Speech Arts in Waldorf Education in North America (now in its 33rd year), working with classes, teachers, individual students, office staff and parents.

MA Human Development, BS Speech Pathology and Audiology, BA Special Educational Studies, Camphill Seminar in Curative Education, with 10 years experience in this field; certified TESOL instructor; freelance editor/translator.
