2. Data Collection

User data: When you visit or interact with our website, we may collect some “user data.” User data is not meant to identify you. “User data” means any information about a user that is automatically collected when a user accesses our website.

User data we may collect:

Client Information & Device Metadata:

- IP address
- VPN or referring host
- Approximate location (city, region/state, country)
- Device type, operating system, screen resolution
- Browser type and version

User Engagement Data:

- Page views per session
- Session start and end times
- First and last visit timestamps
- Number of submitted forms

Bot Detection & Abuse Prevention:

- Behavior-based tracking via reCAPTCHA and embedded mechanisms to determine human versus automated access
- Logged and retained solely to prevent abuse and ensure site security

Personal Data:

When you visit our website, we do not automatically collect any personal data about you. Personal data refers to any data that can directly or indirectly identify, relate to, describe, or be linked to an individual – such as your name, address, telephone number, or e-mail address. You may, however, provide it to us voluntarily, for example, through a contact form.

3. Website Tracking Technologies

“Website tracking technology” means any tool used by a government website to:

- (a) monitor a user’s behavior; or
- (b) collect user data.

We may use the following tracking technologies on this site:

- First-Party Cookies:
  - Session Cookies: For secure user authentication. These expire when the session ends unless “Remember Me” is enabled.
  - Persistent Cookies: Used for authentication purposes.
- Third-Party Cookies:
  - Google Analytics: Tracks session behavior, device/browser metadata, traffic source (e.g., Google, Bing), and general geographic location. Used for performance analytics.

4. Data Usage

Data collected through this website is used for the following purposes:

- Maintaining security, performance, and integrity of the website
- Understanding website usage trends
- Responding to submitted forms

We do not use your data for commercial profiling or advertising.

5. Data Sharing or Sale

- Data Sharing: Information may be disclosed to authorized government staff or governmental agencies only where necessary to fulfill operational or legal responsibilities.
- Data Sale: We do not sell any user or personal data to third parties.

6. Record Series

User data collected through this website may be retained under authorized GRAMA record series applicable to:

- Public inquiries and submissions
- Web activity logs
- reporting forms
- Internal audit documentation

All data is maintained in accordance with the Utah Division of Archives and Records Service classification schedules.

7. User Rights

You have the right to:

- Access your personal data collected via this website
- Request correction or amendment of your submitted personal data

To exercise these rights, please contact us at director@odysseycharter.net

8. At-Risk Employees – Privacy Classification

If you are an at-risk employee (as defined by Utah Code § 63G-2-302), you may request that your personal data be classified as a private record. Please submit such a request to: director@odysseycharter.net

9. How we protect your data

We are committed to keeping the personal data you provide to us secure and will take precautions to protect your information from loss, misuse, or alteration. We use appropriate technical, administrative, and physical safeguards to ensure your personal data is protected from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure.

10. Data retention

We retain personal data only as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected or as required by law.

11. Privacy Ombudsperson – Filing a Complaint

If you have concerns about this website's data practices, you may submit a complaint with the Utah State Privacy Ombudsperson:
