Efforts by School to Comply with Utah Code 63G-31-201 et seq. (Distinctions on the Basis of Sex) and Title IX

Category	Compliance Efforts by School
Providing Separate Accommodates for Males and Females to Protect Individual Privacy, Health, and Competitive Opportunity	We provide separate accommodations for males and females to protect individual privacy, health, and competitive opportunity. Our policies align with state law to ensure a safe and respectful environment for all individuals.
Not Providing a Sex-Designated Facility, Program, or Event of a Higher Quality to One Sex and of a Lesser Quality to the Opposite Sex	We do not provide sex-designated facilities, programs, or events of higher quality to one sex while offering lesser quality to the opposite sex. All resources are allocated fairly to maintain equal standards.
Not Providing Males or Females Preferred or More Advantageous Scheduling of Facilities, Programs, or Events in Comparison to the Opposite Sex	We do not provide preferential or more advantageous scheduling of facilities, programs, or events to one sex over the other. Our scheduling practices are designed to be equitable and unbiased.
Not Providing Males or Females with More Sex-Designated Opportunities than the Opposite Sex in Excess of a 10% Disparity	We ensure that sex-designated opportunities are provided equitably, with no disparity exceeding 10% between sexes. Our commitment to fairness ensures balanced access to all programs and facilities.
Not Requiring Males or Females to Participate or Compete Against the Opposite Sex in any Sex-Designated Facility, Program, or Event	We do not require males or females to compete against the opposite sex in any sex-designated facility, program, or event. Our programs are structured to preserve competitive fairness and individual privacy.
Not Requiring, Giving Official Authorization For, or Knowingly Allowing Males or Females to Use a Sex-Designated Facility in the Presence of the Opposite Sex	We do not require, authorize, or knowingly allow individuals to use sex-designated facilities in the presence of the opposite sex. Our policies ensure that all sex-designated spaces maintain privacy and adhere to state regulations.

Action Plan to Address Discrepancy (10% or greater) Between Male-Designated and Female-Designated Interscholastic Sports at the School

The school is currently meeting all applicable regulations regarding male-designated and female-designated interscholastic sports, with no identified discrepancies exceeding 10%. Therefore, an action plan is not necessary at this time.
